

Museum artifacts
and chocolate...
a delicious combination!

Support the Clark County Historical Museum and enjoy amazing chocolate creations at the

CHOCOLATE
EXTRAVAGANZA
DINNER AND AUCTIONS

~ MAY 22, 2010 ~

Featuring edible chocolate replicas of museum artifacts.

You won't want to miss this event.

CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM

est. 1964
operated by the Clark County Historical Society

Museum artifacts and chocolate... a delicious combination
Experience the CHOCOLATE EXTRAVAGANZA
 DINNER AND AUCTIONS EVENT
 at Clark College ~ May 22, 2010

Join us for this amazing fund-raising event at Gaiser Hall, Clark College. Enjoy the fabulous chocolate creations made by master chocolatier Ian Titterton and his staff and students from the Clark College Baking Program.

The evening starts at 5 p.m. with appetizers, beverages, wine, live music and chocolates. Dinner and the auctions follow. Auction items include museum artifacts recreated in chocolate by Ian Titterton!

Ticket information:

- $75 a ticket /$65 for museum members. RSVP by May 15.
- Payment by phone, mail, e-mail (cchm@pacifier.com) or at the museum.

Ian Titterton, former head chocolatier for Moonstruck Chocolates

1511 Main St., Vancouver WA 98660

(360) 933-5679 • www.cchmuseum.org

Open: Tuesday–Saturday 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Also First Thursday evenings (Feb.– Nov.) 5 to 9 p.m.

CLARK COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM
est. 1964
 operated by the Clark County Historical Society